JOURNEY BEFORE THE COLLECTIVE

While at home during the height of the pandemic, Jess did some serious soul searching. She thought about what it means to be a mom with two little boys at home, how to contribute to family finances, and to do work that she feels aligned with. She landed on grant writing as her next career move.

MAJOR WINS

- ✔ Hit $100k in business revenue in her first 18 months in business.
- ✔ Won $1.35M in grant funding in 18 months.
- ✔ Building a team of grant writers in Hawaii.
- ✔ Schedule is more fully integrated with her passions.
- ✔ Celebrated by buying herself a Peloton!
- ✔ Leading book club in the Collective.

FEEDBACK FOR YOU

“Go for it! Tiny little shifts can make a big impact,” Jess said. “The more you can make those small progressions, the bigger the end result will be and the happier you’ll be along the way too.”
